EMPEROR OF JAPAN NOW HAS PNEUMONIA.

His Majesty's Prospects of Recovery Considered Hopeful.

Patient at the Royame Palace on Whose Grounds He Caught Cold.

TOKIO, May 23.—Official report that Emperor Yoshihito is ill with pneumonia, the constant attendance upon him by one or more of the eight court physicians, and the vigil which Empress Sadako kept at his bedside all last night, makes it appear that his condition is more grave than was indicated by the first bulletins. The whole Japanese empire is today depressed with the reports.

The Bulletin issued this morning only announced briefly that the emperor's condition was unchanged. The high fever of last night, when his temperature ranged from 98.58 to 102.92 Fahr., apparently was unabated.

The official bulletin on Emperor Yoshihito's condition issued this morning by the court physician says: "His Majesty's temperature has risen to 103.46 Fahr. His pulse is 90 and his respiration 40".

The emperor is holding his own, according to officials at the palace, who declare that his prospects of recovery are more hopeful. Multitudes of Japanese prayed throughout the day in the vicinity of the palace.

The bulletin issued at 4 o'clock this afternoon says the emperor's temperature remains at 103.46 degrees Fahrenheit.

The imperial patient is at the Aoyama palace, on whose immense parade ground he contracted a cold while reviewing the troops last Sunday. It had been intended to remove him at once to the Chiyoda palace, but the sudden serious turn of inflammation of the lungs necessitated abandonment of the plan.

The issuance of the first bulletin yesterday, announcing the emperor's illness, came as a great shock to the people and, as it gained circulation through extra editions of newspapers, a sorrowful hush fell upon the city and great crowds silently assembled in front of the royal palace. The people knelt and prayed fervently for the speedy recovery of their sovereign.

The Ginza, the most important business thoroughfare of the city, which is usually brilliantly lighted, was dark last evening and almost deserted, for its shops were closed.

Court circles are still in official mourning for the late Emperor Mutsuhito, and as the period does not expire until July 30, a year from the day of his death, no official entertainments had been planned at this time. Private festivities of all sorts, however are being postponed and the theatres have closed.

Arthur Batfly Blanchard, American charge d'affaires, was among the first of the stream of callers at the imperial palace to inquire about the condition of His Majesty, and he expressed the sympathy of the American government and people for the emperor in his suffering.

A number of native organizations have dispatched special messengers to the imperial shrine to pray for the recovery of the emperor.

WILSON RECEIVES CABLE.

Emperor of Japan Thanks President for Message as to His Health.

WASHINGTON, May 23.—President Wilson today received the following cable from Emperor Yoshihito of Japan:

"Deeply touched by your kind message inquiring after my indisposition, I express my since thanks to yourself, government and the people of the United States."

REGARDING APPROPRIATION.

Japan's Action Toward Participation in Panama Exposition Pleasing.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 23.—President Charles C. Moore of the Panama-Pacific exposition issued the following statement today, relating to action of the Japanese Parliament committees, in favoring an appropriation of $600,000 for Japan's participation in the exposition:

"The action of the Japanese Parliament regarding that nation's participation in the Panama-Pacific international exposition, confirming the assurances previously given, especially in view of the recent events in California is a matter of deepest gratification to the exposition management. We have confidently expected that the Japanese participation would be of a character to make the world take notice even at this universal exposition."

OFF FOR SALONIKI.

King of Greece Leaves in Consequence of Resumption of Hostilities.

ATHENS, Greece, May 23.—In consequence of the resumption of hostilities between the Bulgarian and Greek troops, King Constantine of Greece, accompanied by Prince Alexander and the general staff of the army, left for Saloniki this morning.

PLANS FOR ROSE FESTIVAL.

Under the direction of Mrs. E. Benjamin May, the work of arranging the rose festival at the United Congregational parish house June 7 is progressing rapidly. The festival will be held both afternoon and evening and the proceeds will go to the Sunshine Society. Elaborate preparations are under way; the Camp Fire Girls under the direction of Miss Helen Emery will furnish an entertainment. Miss Julie Brown will exploit her art in silhouettes, which is destined to be one of the most popular booths, the Fort Adams band will furnish music, and many other features have been provided.

ON DESTROYER STEWART.

Two Men Killed and Another Probably Fatally Injured.

SAN DIEGO, Cal., May 23.—A high-pressure cylinder casting blew out of the port engine on torpedo boat destroyer Stewart during a speed trial today, killing two men and probably fatally injuring a third. The dead are: M. C. Smith, oiler; H. P. Bock, chief machinist's mate; injured, Alma Miller, oiler.

CAPTAIN HANNA DEAD.

Board of Inquiry to Investigate Explosion at Fort Moultrie.

CHARLESTON, S. C., May 23.—A board of inquiry has been appointed to investigate the cause of the explosion last night at Battery Lord, Fort Moultrie, of the 4.7-inch gun which killed three artillerymen, besides fatally wounding Captain G. B. G. Hanna, One Hundred and Sixtieth company coast artillery corps, and injured nine privates; Colonel Frederick S. Strong, the commanding district officer, is at a loss to account for the explosion.

The plunger of the gun pierced the roof of a vacant dwelling 600 feet away. Captain Hanna died shortly before 11 today. A flying breech block tore a large hole in his side. Privates Baxter, Christian and Dalton of the coast artillery were killed, two of them being cut in two and dying instantly. The men were at night practice when the tragedy occurred.

ALL APPEALS DISREGARDED.

No More Time to be Extended to Hearing Tariff Arguments.

WASHINGTON, May 23.—Announcement that the finance committee will hear no more tariff arguments after Tuesday has brought from all parts of the country appeals for an extension of time. They will be disregarded and all manufacturers who have inquired have been notified that they may file briefs up to the time the bill is reported to the Senate. Corridors of the Capitol and the Senate office building were thronged today with those who wished to be heard before the doors of the room are closed Tuesday night.

PRINCIPAL ONES UNDISTURBED.

Democrats Agree on a Number of Committees of the House.

WASHINGTON, May 23.—Democratic members of the ways and means committee, it was asserted today, have agreed tentatively upon a number of the committees of the House, appointments to which have been deferred because of the pressure of business. The immigration committee chairmanship will be retained by Representative Burnett of Alabama, who also served in the latter part of the last Congress as head of the public building committee. Most of the principal chairmanships will be undisturbed, but there will be many changes in memberships. The Interstate Commerce Committee will be almost completely changed. Representative Houston of Tennessee must drop out to retain the chairmanship of the census committee and Representative Smith of Texas to keep his irrigation chairmanship. Other members are similarly situated.

House leaders have made tentative selections for the chairmanship of the following committees: Agriculture, Representative Lever, South Carolina; appropriations, Fitzgerald, New York; banking and currency, Glass, Virginia; District of Columbia, Johnson, Kentucky; education, Hobson, Alabama; foreign affairs, Flood, Virginia; immigration, Burnett, Alabama; interstate and foreign commerce, Adamson, Georgia; judiciary, Clayton, Alabama; labor, Maher, New York; merchant marine, Alexander, Missouri; military affairs, Hay, Virginia; naval affairs, Padgett, Tennessee; postoffice, Moon, Tennessee; public lands, Ferris, Oklahoma; rivers and harbors, Sparkman, Florida; insular, Jones, Virginia.

The Republican assignments will be submitted soon by Republican Leader Mann. The Progressives will confer May 28 to decide finally on their list of selections for the 37 committee places they are to receive.

JOSHUA CRANE AS REFEREE.

To Act at International Polo Match at Westbury in June.

BOSTON, May 23.—Joshua Crane, of the Dedham Polo Club, who refereed the International polo match two years ago will act in a similar capacity in the struggle at Westbury next month, it was announced today.

HIS CONDITION SERIOUS.

Robert Edeson Undergoes Treatment for Blood Poisoning.

LOS ANGELES, May 23.—Robert Edeson, the actor, is being treated at a hospital here for blood poisoning. Edeson sustained an injury to his left leg at a local theatre Tuesday night and blood poisoning developed. Physicians said today that his condition is so serious that an operation will be necessary unless a decided improvement is noted soon. The play in which Edeson has been appearing was temporarily discontinued last night.

MRS. EDESON ALSO ILL.

Actor's Wife at the Southampton Hospital Suffering From Nervousness.

NEW YORK, May 23.—Mrs. Robert Edeson, it was learned today, has been for some time in the Southampton, (L. I.), hospital suffering from a nervous breakdown. Physicians at the institution declined to discuss the case today other than to say her condition was not serious. Mrs. Edeson was formerly Miss Georgie Porter of Brookline, Mass.

PRESERVATION OF PEACE KING GEORGE'S DESIRE.

Replies to Address by British Residents in Berlin.

Political Note Shows Friendly Relations Between the Three Dynasties.

BERLIN, May 23.—King George of England, at present the guest of Emperor William on the occasion of the marriage of Princess Victoria Luise to Prince Ernest August of Cumberland, spoke earnestly, but briefly, today on the necessity of the maintenance of peace in the world. Replying to an address presented to him by the British residents of Berlin, gathered at the British embassy, His Majesty said: "The preservation of peace is my fervent desire, as it was the chief aim and object of my dear father's life."

This, the first and only political note sounded during the wedding festivities of Emperor William's only daughter, for which three emperors and many princes are gathered, seems, according to the opinion expressed in influential circles, to epitomize the significance of the royal and imperial visits as a demonstration of the peaceful and friendly relations existing between the three powerful dynasties.

King George and Queen Mary were guests of the British ambassador, the others present including Chancellor Bethman Hollweg and a number of the diplomatic corps, including John G. A. Leishman, American ambassador to Germany, and Mrs. Leishman. At the same time Emperor Nicholas of Russia was the guest at luncheon of the Russian ambassador at the Russian embassy.

For the gala opera to be given tonight the first act of Lohengrin has been selected by Princess Victoria Luise.

RE-ARREST SOUGHT.

Page Violates Terms of Sentence Under Which He Was Released.

NEW YORK, May 23.—Government agents today were unable to find any trace of Henry W. A. Page, a linen importer, whose re-arrest is sought, on the ground that he violated the terms of a suspended sentence under which he was released at Washington a year ago, after his conviction of libelling members of Congress. He was sentenced at the time to serve five years in prison and paid a fine of $1,000.

Employes in the building where Page had his offices said today that they had not seen him for several days, and some of them expressed the belief that he had gone to Europe.

Page abused members of Congress in a pamphlet which he circulated, holding that he could not get justice in American courts. After his conviction he promised to desist in his campaign, but of late it is charged that he sent letters to President Wilson attacking the Department of Justice. This brought about the order for his re-arrest.

STAY OF TEN DAYS GRANTED.

Anhut Sentenced for Bribery in Attempting Thaw's Release.

NEW YORK, May 23.—John N. Anhut, the lawyer convicted of bribery in attempting to obtain the release of Harry Thaw from the Matteawan asylum for the criminal insane, was sentenced today to serve not less than two years nor more than four in Sing Sing prison.

Justice Seabury granted a stay of 10 days, during which Anhut will remain in the Tombs, to permit the preparation of an application for a certificate of reasonable doubt. This application Anhut's lawyers hope to make the basis of an appeal.

CHECKED BY VENEZUELANS.

Telegram to Associated Press Correspondent at Caracas Withheld.

NEW YORK, May 23.—Venezuelan government officials yesterday withheld a telegram to the correspondent of the Associated Press at Caracas, Venezuela, requesting details of the arrest of many Venezuelans and of the reason for the flight of Dr. Leopoldo Hastiata, former secretary general to President Gomex and of General Juan Pablo Penalosa from the Venezuelan capital at Curaco, where they arrived in a small sailing boat Wednesday.

CEREMONY IN WASHINGTON.

Negro Leaders to Pay Homage to Former Senator Henderson.

WASHINGTON, May 23.—Negro leaders from many states are arriving in Washington today to pay homage to former Senator John B. Henderson, of Missouri, who died here recently and who was the author of the thirteenth amendment to the constitution of the United States abolishing slavery. Arrangements for the ceremony, which are to be held tonight in the Metropolitan African Methodist Episcopal Church, have been carefully prepared and several thousand members of the colored race, including negro religious and secret societies and civic organizations, will be present. Cardinal Gibbons and many high government officials and members of Congress have been invited to attend the services.

ARRESTED IN FALL RIVER.

Denault Charged With Larceny from the City Funds.

FALL RIVER, Mass., May 23.—Amble M. Denault, a clerk in the office of city collector, was arrested this afternoon on a charge of larceny of $1,500 from the city funds. He had been employed in the collector's office for the past 12 years and was recently placed under civil service. Arrest was ordered by the Massachusetts Bonding Company, following an investigation made by City Collector Albert and the city solicitor.

SAVING—— MONEY——

Is largely a matter of habit. The people who save money, as a rule, have just as good times, in fact better, than those who fail to save, because they have the satisfaction of knowing that they are fortified against the unexpected. ## NEWPORTERS PROMINENT.

Unusual Representation at Great Council of Red Men, and One Promoted.

Weonat Shassit Tribe, Independent Order of Red Men, was represented by 47 past chiefs at the annual session of the Great Council in Providence Thursday, and of this number three were past great sachems. One of the tribe's members was promoted in his climb toward the head of the order in the state. As usual, the Newport delegation figured with prominence in the proceedings.

The death of Great Keeper of Wampum Charles C. Phillips, coming as it did, forced an election at a time when the Great Council was loth to proceed; the deceased had another year to serve. The Council took the usual action relative to the death, and voted that all the members who could should attend the funeral and that the great chiefs should render all assistance possible to the tribe in the conduct of the burial services.

The order, according to the annual reports, was found to be progressing. The great keeper of records reported a membership of 2,185 in the reservation, with a net gain of 191 during the year. The receipts of the year have been nearly $20,000 and the expenditures $17,408, while the assets of the tribes amount to $33,090.66.

The Degree of Pocahontas also shows an increase in membership and in finances, the membership being 516—a gain of 155.

The Great Council adopted the necessary regulations for the conduct of its orphan fund under new conditions, and made appropriations for the ensuing year as well as attended to other routine work. The election resulted as follows:

Great Sachem—Dennis P. McGuire.
Great Senior Sagamore—William J. Carr.
Great Junior Sagamore—Walter Wyman.
Great Prophet—James Munroe.
Great Keeper of Wampum—E. Fred Gottschalk.
Great Representative—James Munroe.

The following appointments were made:

Great Sannap—Frank E. Hazelton.
Great Mishinewa—Peter J. Clarkin.
Great Guard of the Wigwam—Harry Forbes.
Great Guard of the Forest—A. F. Smith.

The officers were raised to their respective stumps by Great Keeper of Wampum William Saunders of Bridgeport, Conn., of the Great Council of the United States.

At noon the body sat down to a turkey dinner served in one of the smaller halls in the building, and in the evening there were exercises for the observance of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the Great Council of Rhode Island. There were speeches by Lieutenant Governor Churchard, Mayor Gainer of Providence and Big Chief Saunders, and retiring Great Prophet E. M. Burke read the history of the Great Council of Rhode Island. The members of the Degree of Pocahontas were present in a body. There were many guests from the families of the Red Men of Rhode Island. An orchestra was in attendance, and dancing continued until midnight.

THE VAGRANT INSPECTED.

Harold S. Vanderbilt Not to Promote Building of Cup Defender.

Mr. Harold S. Vanderbilt of New York, who is credited with being ambitious to be one of a general syndicate to finance the designing and building of a Herreshoff cup defender to meet Sir Thomas Lipton's challenger Shamrock, was in Bristol Thursday, spending the entire day inspecting the work of rigging the new racing schooner Vagrant, which he had built there. Mr. Vanderbilt, who is very enthusiastic about the schooner, was interviewed in regard to the matter of requesting Mr. Herreshoff to design for him a 75-foot sloop to meet the new challenger in 1914. He said he will not be one of a syndicate to promote the building of a cup defender at this time.

BENEDICTION OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT.

The impressive service of the benediction of the blessed sacrament was held at the Convent of the Cenacle Thursday, the feast of Corpus Christi. Rev. Edward A. Higney, pastor of St. Joseph's Church, was the celebrant and gave the benediction, being assisted by Rev. William B. Meenan of St. Mary's Church as deacon, Rev. Father Joseph of St. Anthony's, Portsmouth, as sub-deacon and Rev. Father LeChance, chaplain of the convent, as master of ceremonies.

From the chapel there was an impressive procession through the grounds to the repositories, where the blessed sacrament was placed, the benediction being given by Rev. Father Higney at each depository, the canopy over the sacrament being carried by Dr. Philip E. Clark and Messrs. Patrick O'Sullivan, Charles Corcoran and George Callahan. The music was rendered by a choir of young women from St. Joseph's Church, under the direction of Miss Josephine MacDonald. About 200 adults and 80 children attended the services.

MUSIC AND A PLAY AT MT. ZION CHURCH.

A musical and dramatic entertainment was given at Mt. Zion African Methodist Episcopal Church Thursday evening by the members of the Sunday School and was largely attended by friends of the church and school. The musical program included vocal selections by Mrs. J. Gibbons, Mr. H. Marshall and Miss M. West; a piano solo by Miss E. Jackson, and a piano duet by the Misses Rita Ray and Maude Jenkins.

The second part was a play, "The Trouble at Satterlee's," in which the characters were taken by Miss Leonora Carter, Mrs. Zoe Richards, Miss Catherine Brown, Miss Catherine Sheffield, Miss Murle West, Mrs. Alice Dinkins and Miss Viola Sheffield.

The committee in charge of the entertainment included Mrs. Josephine Riley, Miss Margaret Richards, Mrs. Sarah Carter, Miss Leonora Carter, Mrs. Joseph Gibbons, Mrs. Louise Stevens, Messrs. Martin Sutler, James Johnson and J. W. Willard, and the pastor, Rev. T. Wellington Henderson, D. D.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.

At the Philharmonic Society's annual meeting Thursday evening, the various officers presented their annual reports, and that of the treasurer showed a balance. The membership has increased during the year. The officers elected for the year 1913-14 are:

President—C. F. Barker, M. D.
Vice President—Alfred W. Holland.
Secretary—Mrs. C. L. Slocum.
Treasurer—Mrs. W. H. Walcott.

It was voted to give the usual series of concerts next season.

PRESBYTERIANS TO STAY.

Vote Not to Withdraw from Federal Council of Churches.

ATLANTA, Ga., May 22.—The Southern Presbyterian Assembly today voted, 138 to 27, not to withdraw from the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America. In a discussion preceding the vote, Dr. T. M. Lowry of Memphis reiterated his charges that the organization was endeavoring to influence national politics.

The Northern Presbyterian Assembly directed Moderator T. J. Stone of Chicago to appoint a special committee to consider "the enormous violation of the seventh commandment and to recommend steps to be taken to safeguard the youth of the land."

Overtures, urging the Southern Assembly to withdraw from the Council, were contained in the report of the committee on foreign correspondence. The committee, in submitting its report opposing withdrawal, recommended that the assembly "now declare that by this action it does not, as a church court, approve of the social service program presented by the Federal Council to make it plain that its social service program was not intended to be adopted by the churches as organized bodies."

The United Presbyterian Assembly before it adjourned took what was characterized as the "greatest forward step in the history of the church," when it perfected the organization of the "missionary and efficiency committee." This new committee, composed of representatives chosen from every board in the church, absorbs the ways and means committee and the comparatively new "million dollar committee." One of its chief duties will be to act as a clearing house for all church funds.

The United Assembly received from Dr. R. J. Miller of Pittsburgh his resignation as editor of the Christian Union Herald. This church publication was criticised in the recent report of the publication committee, which charged that it had obeyed instructions of the General Assembly. The same committee, however, endorsed Dr. Miller's work. On the ground that no fault had been attached to him, the United Assembly refused to accept Dr. Miller's resignation.

The 76th annual report of the Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions presented to the General Assembly showed total appropriations and disbursements for the fiscal year ending March 13, 1913, of $1,962,844. The total credits were $1,887,342, showing a deficit on the total appropriations of $65,302.

INVENTING NAMES.

[London Chronicle.]

It is not so easy as one might imagine to invent original names, whether of persons or places. A distinguished novelist once told me that after making a long list of what he fondly believed to be purely imaginary names of places and people for a new book he was mortified to find that nearly the whole of them were to be found as actual names in directories and gazetteers. Doubtless Mark Twain's experience was the oddest. Determined to devise for one of his characters a name that could not possibly exist in real life, he invented "Eschol Sellers" Alas there was a real Eschol Sellers in one of the Southern states, and he was duly heard from, with a threat of a libel action!

Here is one case of it:

Henry Vickers, 17 Poplar St., Newport, R. I., says: "I have told many people of the benefit I have received from Doan's Kidney Pills and I do not hesitate to confirm the statement I gave for publication in their praise three years ago. My kidneys caused me no end of trouble and I had severe pains through my loins. The kidney secretions contained sediment and were irregular in passage. I was restless at night and felt tired and languid upon arising in the morning. Hearing about Doan's Kidney Pills I procured a supply at Wright & Hay's Drug Store and they restored me to good health."

MENU FOR SATURDAY.

Creamed Asparagus—Serve the Banana Frappe in Punch Glasses.

Breakfast.

Boiled Rice with Cream.
Poached Eggs on Toast.
Crumpets. Coffee.

Lunch.

Scalloped Fish. Creamed Asparagus
Caramel Custard.
Tea.

Dinner.

Pot Roast of Beef.
Carrots. Baked Potatoes.
Lettuce and Tomato Salad.
Cheese Straws. Banana Frappe.
Coffee.

Creamed Asparagus.

Cut the toast in small triangles, and serve a spoonful of the asparagus tips and tenderest portions which have been cut into half-inch pieces and, when cooked tender, covered with a rich cream sauce.

Banana Frappe.

Select firm fruit, pull off the skins, cut each in quarters lengthwise, then into half-inch bits. Turn into a freezer, pack in ice and salt and set aside from one and a half to two hours; the fruit should be very thoroughly chilled, yet not frozen solid. Serve in punch glasses, sprinkling thickly with powdered sugar.

MENU FOR SUNDAY.

Mint Sauce, to Go With Lamb, May be Used Either Hot or Cold.

Breakfast

Fruit
Cereal with Milk
Broiled Bacon Creamed Potatoes
Waffles Syrup
Coffee

Dinner

Forequarter of Lamb Mint Sauce
Lima Beans Potatoes
Pineapple Salad
Crackers Cheese
Frozen Strawberries
Coffee

Supper

Shrimp Salad
Egg Sandwiches
Strawberry Shortcakes
Chocolate

Hot Mint Sauce.

Mint sauce, to go with lamb, may be either hot or cold. To make the former, put into a small saucepan five or six sprigs of fresh mint, a bay leaf, a teaspoonful of chopped onion, a teaspoonful of sugar, one tablespoonful of vinegar, one tablespoonful of strained tomato, one cupful of stock and the beaten white of one egg. Bring to boiling point, then simmer gently for 10 minutes. Thicken with a teaspoonful of cornstarch, add a few fresh chopped mint leaves and serve.

Cold Mint Sauce

To make the cold mint sauce put three tablespoonfuls of freshly chopped mint into a basin, add two tablespoonfuls of sugar, then drop in one dessertspoonful of olive oil and add one cupful of vinegar. If too strong a little water may be added.

LEARNING TO SAY "NO" PLEASANTLY.

[Philadelphia Ledger.]

Many a man in private affairs or in public office creates needless complications because he is unwilling or unable to return the soothing, diplomatic answer that turneth away wrath, and to decline a request with a certain gracious graciousness that almost robs it of the sense of negation.

Often it is not the "no" that baffled ambition resents, it is the way the "no" is uttered. The flat refusal is somehow made to sound as though its peremptoriness left in the hard, cold, cruel mind of the refuser no lingering regret. The astute, tactful, clever person knows how to temper the wind to the one whose plea must be rejected. There is a blending of kindness and firmness that pours oil on troubled waters. Resentment is disarmed and opposition lulled to rest by the placating syllables of the terms in which the refusal is couched.

Many strong resolute characters utterly repudiate such conciliatory tactics as weak and effeminate. They believe in "blurting it right out" when they have reached an inflexible decision; in saying what they think, in striking from the shoulder, in being positive, forthright and blunt. It sounds Napoleonic, heroic, masterful, but, as a matter of fact, these persons of Homeric or Saxon outspokenness often have to lean upon the services of others, in affairs that require the delicacy or conciliatory courtesy. The man of uncompromising and rigid austerity is admirable, but sometimes he makes virtue odious; he sees nothing immoral if he discloses certain sympathies and a generous willingness to consider an opposing point of view before its final refutation at his hands.

THE ROUSING-STICK.

[Glasgow News.]

In former times the question of folk falling asleep during divine service was one that greatly exercised the minds of church officials. Eventually, as certain listeners refused to be stirred up by the discourse, it was decided to stir them up in another way, and the beadle was deputed to make a round of the congregation with a "rousing-stick," with which he was to force attention. When there was no beadle some one specially was selected to perform the duty.

The old custom was in vogue in the early years of the last century, for there is a record of one, Betty Finch, "a very masculine sort of woman," being given the office at Holy Trinity Church, Warrington. Mistress Finch walked up and down the aisles during service, armed with a great stick like a fishing rod, which had a "bob" fastened at the end of it, and with this she energetically nudged the sleepers.

BONCI HEADS THE NEW COLUMBIA RECORDS.

Bonci, famous as the world's most artistic singer and the greatest living master of the art of bel canto, heads the list of new double-disc records featured this month by the Columbia Graphophone Company. These are the first American recordings Bonci has made; European recordings have been available in this country for some years and the new series recorded in the Columbia laboratory in New York are a gratifying vindication of this country's lead in the art of sound recording and reproduction. The first Bonci series issued includes six selections on three double-disc records—arias from Verdi's Luisa Miller, La Favorita, La Boheme and L'Elisir d'amore.

THE LITTLE CITY FELLER.

[Anna Spencer Twitchell, in National Magazine.]

The little city feller was as pale as he could be—
My mother had him sent out for a week so he could see
The really, truly country, an' get lots of milk an' eggs,
An' put some fat, ma said, on his pore little arms an' legs;
An' then she told me he ain't got no good home like I got,
An' never knew his father an' his mother, like as not.

At first he sort of dumped around an' wouldn't play a thing,
An' wouldn't talk or answer me, but set there in the swing,
Until I brought my rabbits out, an' took him down to see
Old Bess, an' her new, spotted calf that daddy give to me.
I took him to the crick, an' say! what do you think of him?
A-goin' on eleven an' ain't never learned to swim!
An' then we drove the cows home and we helped corral the sheep,
An' he was so done up an' tired, he et, and fell asleep
Right at the table, an' my pa he carried him to bed,
Because he wasn't bigger than a minute, daddy said;
Said we must help him get red cheeks an' muscle, like I got,
An' cut up Ned—I'd have to show him how, as like as not.

But now I guess there ain't no devilment that he can't find,
He keeps me goin' some, but I ain't very far behind.
Ma says the two of us is all a mortal can endure,
An' just another week of it would drive her crazy, sure.
He's company, an' going home today as like as not,
Or I bet he'd get a tannin' with a hick'ry, like I got!

Her dad (sternly)—My daughter, sir, will continue under the parental roof.

Her suitor—Well, sir, the parental roof looks good to me.—[Boston Transcript.

MICA USED FOR DECORATION.

Large quantities of scrap mica—small sheets and the waste from the manufacture of sheet mica—are ground for different uses, among which are the decoration of wall paper and the manufacture of lubricants, fancy paints, and molded mica for electrical insulation, according to the United States Geological Survey. Ground mica applied to wall paper gives a silvery luster. When mixed with grease or oils finely ground mica forms an excellent lubricant for axles and other bearings. Mixed with shellac or special compositions, ground mica is molded into desired forms and is used in insulators for trolley wires. Ground mica for electrical insulation must be free from metallic minerals. Mica used for lubrication should be free from gritty matter. For wall paper and brocade points a ground mica with a high luster is required, and such luster is best obtained by using a clean, light-colored mica and grinding it under water. Coarsely ground or "bran" mica is used in increasing quantities to coat the surface of composition roofing material to prevent the tar or other ingredients used in its manufacture from sticking when the sheets are rolled for shipping.

EXCLUSIVE ASSOCIATED PRESS SERVICE FOR NEWPORT.

THE NEWS IN PROVIDENCE.

The Daily News is on sale in Providence the evening of publication at Union Station.

Items of local interest are solicited and will be used if their value warrants. The value is often affected if the same information has already been used in another paper. Communications of any kind must be accompanied in every case with name of sender, or they cannot be published under any circumstances, and will be received subject to editorial approval and revision.

THE PROSPECT OF MEAT IMPORTS.

An authority on provisions is discouraging. He tells us that if all the cattle and all the sheep of Argentina and Australia, the two principal grazing countries of the world, were transferred to the United States it would increase our supply of beef only about half a beef and one and a half sheep for each person. The deduction is that we cannot hope for any great reduction in the price of meats from tariff changes.

It seems to be pretty certain that the supply of food animals is not increasing in proportion to the population. This means that ground is worth more for tillage than for pasturage, though we are met here also with the information that the cereal production is not increasing in proportion to population and while we still have plenty for ourselves we have a decreasing surplus for export.

As population increases, unless there shall be new supplies of food animals, beef, mutton and pork must continue to advance and people will be able to eat less and less of them. What will be the effect upon the physical condition of mankind? Great improvement, according to the vegetarians, though in spite of all the demonstrations of laboratories and test groups the meat-eating people of the world have been the strong, aggressive, constructing people.

We may perhaps be encouraged by considering how much less meat we eat than people ate a century or two centuries ago—the people who could afford meat, and that meant nearly everybody in this country. The menus which have come down to us from that period indicate three or four or half a dozen kinds of meat on the dinner table at once, and a breakfast which would now be regarded as rather excessive for a dinner. We are not likely to go out of meat-eating entirely, but it is possible that one great meal a day, and that not a very hearty one, would give people as much of animal food as their systems need, even according to those who hold the vegetarians in contempt.

BUSINESS AND THE PUBLIC WEAL.

It is not strange that often those who work in any line for the benefit of the people are discouraged and disheartened by the opposition to their efforts and the stumbling blocks placed in their path by those who ought to be heartily in favor of what is being done and to give their full support to the work. The fact is that the cry is almost always raised by some one, when work is done for the public welfare, that it interferes with personal liberty or private business. The eyes of many persons seem blinded to everything but personal gain. There are many philanthropists, but even some of these lose something of their disposition to work for others and to aid those who are seeking to better the condition of the people and advance the interests of the public when the efforts made in such directions touch their own private business or pleasure.

It is not to be wondered that under such conditions some who engage in work for the benefit of others lose heart and give it up, believing it is impossible to make much headway against such selfish interest, shown in unexpected quarters and by persons supposed to be concerned earnestly with the public welfare. Even in such large matters as the prevention of an epidemic of disease, the protection of the people against food frauds, or the imposition upon the public of products positively harmful, this same cry is heard and there is opposition because movements of this sort interfere with business or private interests of other kinds. Personal benefit is set in the minds of too many above everything else and nothing is approved which in any way affects this. It is for this reason that "big business," as it is often called in these days, controls politics and about everything else which has to do with public affairs, and that so many have come to regard the large corporations and combinations as the enemies of the people.

There is no question in the mind of any reasonable person that business, big or little, should be protected so that it can be conducted without danger or loss; but there should also be in the mind of every reasonable person the thought that business, big or little, should not be allowed to interfere with and block efforts for the good of the people and work for the public welfare. Above and beyond all commercial interests of whatever kind should be placed the public good and interests of the masses. Particularly is this the case in matters affecting the public health, and yet on every hand are seen efforts to check movements for the preservation of general health. Attempts are made to evade and violate the pure food laws, efforts are put forth to make the statutes governing the spread of diseases null and void, and in many ways the protection of the health of the people is hindered because these movements affect private business and the public welfare is considered of secondary importance.

It seems almost incredible that this should be true when the lives of so many are at stake, when the death rate is thus made so abnormally high and such a tremendous waste of human life and such a terrible amount of human suffering is caused by these efforts to check the good work. Business, however, to much too large an extent in this country at the present time, has become unscrupulous and those engaged in it have to too great a degree had their eyes blinded to anything but their own interests. Business in the view of that sort of men has become almost sacred and a thing not to be interfered with at any cost, an idol to which all else must bow and yield the way without regard to what the results may be in suffering, death, or loss of many kinds to the nation. Yet the public welfare must and will prevail over business and every other selfish interest, and the good of the people will some day be the end sought in all cases where these interests conflict.

THE LA FOLLETTE PROGRAM.

The Wisconsin Republicans—that is the La Follette variety of them—had a banquet in Madison lately, with the evident purpose of beginning the campaign of 1916. We presume that only the La Follette Republicans were present, because Governor McGovern was not there, or mentioned, and several hostile allusions were made to him. In fact, it was a decidedly belligerent dinner. There was hostility to the governor, and hostility to Roosevelt, and it is hard to tell whether the present tariff law or the Underwood bill had the severer denunciation. La Follette was not present, but two Congressmen from Wisconsin and one from Minnesota, identified with his interests, made speeches chiefly devoted to attacks upon the pending tariff law.

The circumstantial evidence points to the occasion as the launching of a La Follette boom as the only man on whom the Republicans and the Progressives can unite. The Wisconsin Senator was very hostile four years ago to the Payne-Aldrich bill. That was about the beginning of the Progressive movement and it marked out La Follette as its leader. Such he remained till a little more than a year ago Colonel Roosevelt threw his hat into the ring and took over the whole movement, which La Follette had supposed belonged to him. During the Presidential campaign La Follette was as impartial as the man whose wife was fighting the bear.

Now La Follette is fighting the Underwood bill and assuming the position of a leading exponent of the protection sentiment. The purpose of course is to prove that he is just as good a Republican as anybody, to give him the prestige of the practical Republican leader in the Senate, although the title belongs to Penrose. Three years hence La Follette is to be presented as the foremost Republican but the originator of the Progressive movement; quite as much up-to-date as Roosevelt, but not guilty of knifing in the last Presidential campaign. He will pose as the only man who can unite the two factions. His idea is to unite them on the tariff, which in all probability is a losing issue. As a political issue it is not what it used to be, but of course a "Wilson panic" would resuscitate it.

A recent investigation carried on under the direction of the Department of Labor, to determine the condition of women and children at work in the United States, discloses a high death rate among the women wage earners in the cotton mills in Fall River and Pawtucket. Pawtucket's rate is somewhat lower than Fall River's, although the statistics for the Rhode Island city are not given by themselves, but only as one of the three New England cities studied. Fall River, on the other hand, as the largest cotton manufacturing centre in the country, has its statistics quoted by themselves in comparison with the others. In almost every case Fall River's rate is the highest, in all the mill centres there was found a large excess in the death rate from both tubercular and non-tubercular diseases among female operatives, as compared with corresponding rates among the female non-operative population.

The Fall River school committee has voted to reduce the course below the high school from nine to eight years. This matter of a reduction of the time for reaching the high school is now under consideration by the School Committee of this city and it is expected that some action will be recommended, to begin with the coming school year. The change in Fall River goes into effect next September, when the new school year begins.

The pitcher which goes too frequently to the well is apt to be broken. Walter Johnson, the celebrated pitcher of the Washington American League Club, has finally met his first defeat of the season, at the hands of the Clevelands. He had won 10 games straight, which was evidently too much Johnson for Cleveland.

The anti-American agitation in Japan has given place in the public mind in that country to solicitation regarding the emperor's illness. The war talk is confined to the political opponents of the present ministry, and the government newspapers are calling attention to the impossibility of anything like war because of the financial condition of the country.

The master barbers of New York, who have been subjected to loss and annoyance for a week or more by the strike of their employes, have finally formed a union, or organization, of their own, to be better able to oppose the labor union's demand and to fight back as a unit. They have as much right to unite as their employes.

Chief Kirwin, when he visits the fire apparatus trials in Chelsea, at the suggestion of the Board of Aldermen, will have an excellent opportunity to confirm and strengthen his newly formed favorable opinion of automobile machines for the department.

DESTRUCTION OF FORESTS VS. FLOODS.

(Editorial in the Century.)

With becoming awe at what seems to have been unpreventable, it is sadly appropriate to inquire what might have been done in past years to lessen the recurrent tragedy of the Western floods. To be sure, one cannot by a gesture bid the tempest stand, but nothing is more demonstrable than that the greed and neglect of man have greatly contributed to the destructiveness of floods. The devastation of the ax leads direct to the devastation of the waters. The excessive deforesting of Ohio and Indiana for a hundred years is no illusory or negligible factor in the crisis of death and desolation that has fallen upon those states. * * * After we have reckoned up the cost of the recent floods in lives and money, shall we lie down again to pleasant dreams, oblivious of the fact that to sow neglect is to reap calamity?

ENGLISH FLINT-KNAPPERS.

(London Chronicle.)

The primitive type of men persisting, according to Miss Mudie, in a Surrey village are not the only people who are believed to retain the physical appearance of the stone age men of early Britain. In the little Suffolk town of Brandon the most ancient English industry, that of flint-knapping, is still carried on by workmen who are believed to be direct descendants of the Neolithic makers of stone axes and arrow heads. They make gun flints and tinder flints, for which there is still a considerable demand in North Africa, the Kongo basin and some parts of Asia and South America, and the tool used by them in quarrying flint from the chalk is a single-pointed pick almost identical in shape with the picks made of red deer's antlers found in the prehistoric quarries at Grimes Graves.

The Brandon knappers are adepts at making axes, arrowheads and other stone implements, which are difficult to distinguish from genuine prehistoric relics. One of them succeeded in making a ring of flint, a thing no one is known to have done since the stone age in Egypt. One well known gun-flint maker undertakes to supply facsimile models in flint of all kinds of stone implements, including Eskimo and Fuegian hide-scrapers, Greenland hammers, lake-dwelling daggers and fishhooks and early Egyptian axes.

Friends' Foreign Missionary Meeting—Birthday Celebrations.

[Regular correspondence of The News.]

The Women's Foreign Missionary Society of the Friends Church met Thursday afternoon, for the purpose of cutting out and preparing work, with Mrs. Edward G. Ruggles of "Lehigh." Among that made ready were two white and Turkey red comforters, to be tied at the next meeting. There was a fair attendance, one being present from Fall River.

Alvin Pacheo, oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Pacheo of Turnpike avenue, was surprised Wednesday evening by a party of schoolmates, about 20 in number, in honor of his fifteenth birthday. The time was spent in playing games and the serving of refreshments. He was the recipient of a number of presents.

It has been the custom for many years for four friends—Mrs. William H. Clarke, Mrs. John L. Tallman, Mrs. Fannie Anthony and Mrs. William F. Brayton—to spend their birthdays together. This year was no exception and it fell to Mrs. Clarke to entertain. Mrs. Hannah Sisson and Mrs. Howard Pierce, Mrs. Clarke's daughter, were added to the company. Pretty gifts were received and a collation served by Mrs. Clarke.

The three-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Lawton entertained a few little children Wednesday afternoon in honor of her birthday. A handsome birthday cake was decorated with three candles and pretty presents were received as mementoes of the occasion. The older persons present greatly enjoyed witnessing the delight of the little ones.

Mrs. Fannie Scott, who has been so sick with pneumonia that her life was despaired of, is improving and is now able to sit up a few minutes. She is still at the house of Mrs. Thomas Hollman, where she was taken ill so suddenly that there was no time to remove her to her home.

Mr. Barton A. Ballou of Providence is at his summer home at Bristol Ferry, with his family.

The electrical wiring of the Christian Church is completed, at the cost of $100.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Angell are at their summer cottage, "Uncle Tom's Cabin."

The Ladies' Aid of the Christian Church met at the vestry Thursday afternoon, with a large attendance.

Mrs. Ruth H. Borden entertained her sister, Mrs. Abbie E. Manchester, in honor of Mrs. Borden's birthday.

The Ladies' Association of the Methodist Episcopal Church held the first public strawberry supper of the season in the town, Thursday afternoon and evening. Considering the unpleasant weather, there was an excellent attendance, about as many as the room could accommodate.

A large dray, drawn by six horses and loaded with an eight-ton condenser for the power station of the Bay State Street Railway Company, passed along Power street on its way to the station early this week. Just as it was crossing a culvert collapsed and one of the wheels went into it up to the hub, causing several hours' delay before it reached the power house.

Miss Beulah Barker was one of a trio of violin players, accompanied by a pianist, to play at a musicale in Fall River, given by Miss Locke's junior college preparatory German classes.

Mr. and Mrs. William Potter of Fall River and their daughter and granddaughter, Mrs. Davis Arnold and child of Providence, have taken possession of their cottage at Bristol Ferry for the summer.

Mrs. G. Mason Chase of Fall River is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Richard R. Macomber, and family.

Mrs. Alphonso Davol, who has been ill, is better.

The Stone Bridge Hotel has opened with a new proprietor, Mr. John Carthy.

THE WORLD WILL LET YOU ALONE.

[American Magazine.]

It is a curious thing, and tragic too, when you come to think of it, how the world lets alone those people who appear to want to be let alone. "I can live to myself," says the unneighborly one. "Well, live to yourself, then," cheerfully responds the world, and it goes about its more or less amusing affairs and lets the unneighborly one cut himself off.

ENVOYS' OFFICIAL DRESS.

We alone among the great nations of the world do not clothe our ambassadors in an official costume rich in gold lace. If they have ever served in either the army or the navy they are entitled to wear military or naval uniforms on occasions of ceremony, but otherwise our envoys are expected to impress by the unimpressiveness of their habiliments.

HELPED THE NEGRO TO FREEDOM.

Conference in Memory and Honor of Benefactors of the Race.

Colored Congregational Clergymen Listen to Addresses on the Overthrow of Slavery.

A conference in which the ministers of the colored Congregational churches of New England and vicinity have been engaged at the Union church since opened at the morning session, the purpose of the morning being to commemorate, address and honor the names of those noble men who were instrumental in the freeing of the negro race 60 years ago.

The meeting opened at 10 o'clock with an address of welcome by Rev. Clifford L. Miller, pastor of the entertaining church, followed by praise and devotional exercises conducted by Rev. Robert Wheeler of Hartford, Conn. After a short business session Rev. P. G. Moore-Browne read a paper on "Pioneer Workers for the Downfall of Slavery in the British West Indies."

Perhaps it may be a surprise, said the speaker in opening, to know that the subject is scarcely ever mentioned in the British West Indies, and yet still it is an important historical fact. This silence may be readily accounted for, as the slave trade in those islands was abolished more than 100 years ago; since that time conditions have so changed as to make the white and colored races live together in peace and harmony. Still the fact remains that the degrading institution of slavery, with all its horrors and awful sufferings, once existed there.

Rev. Mr. Moore-Brown then went on to give a detailed history of slavery in the islands, and from the facts of history it was evident that the unhappy slaves were treated even worse than beasts of burden. No effort whatever was made to improve their condition, morally or religiously, although it could be said to the credit of the Catholic Church that they did believe the slaves had souls.

In conclusion the speaker mentioned Wilberforce, Baxter, Paley, Whitefield and Cowper, Richard Steele, and, last but not least, John Wesley. These were some of the noble men of just and conscientious men who created public sentiment against slavery, who fought with unremitting zeal and labored incessantly for its downfall in the West Indies. Their names must live forever, for they have immortalized themselves in immortality that glorious, in having been instrumental in abolishing one of the worst institutions which ever existed upon the face of the earth—that of human slavery in the West Indies.

There was an interval, during which those in the audience were invited to unite in the discussion of what had been said.

Rev. James A. Wright, a young clergyman, followed with a paper on "Our Congregational Workers and the Uplift of the Negro in the United States," in the course of which he mentioned the names of the different men who were instrumental in having slavery abolished, and also gave the credit due to the author of "Uncle Tom's Cabin," and to her brother, Henry Ward Beecher.

The next speaker was Rev. Gideon Pease, whose subject practically discussed the preceding one, being "The Contribution of Congregationalism for the Uplift of the Negro."

Adjournment was taken at 12:45 for luncheon, which was served in the city. The uncompleted part of the morning session was taken up at 2 o'clock.

BALDWIN TO PITCH.

Attleboros Out to Win Sunday's Game But Trojans Not Afraid.

Baldwin, the star twirler of the Reed & Barton team of Taunton, will pitch for the Attleboros against the Trojans at Wellington Park Sunday. He is one of their important cogs last season and is considered one among the semi-professional players of southern Massachusetts. In addition he has been in the New England League with Worcester and formerly pitched for Pittsfield.—He is said to be good or he would not be with the Reed & Barton team.

Another change from last Saturday in the Attleboro line-up will be Hennessey instead of Uhlig at second base. Hennessey plays regularly with the Attleboro aggregation are out to win Sunday's game, as a victory will give them the series and this means much to them, as they play many games on the road.

The Trojans do not expect to lose, they believe Jake Sheehan can stop the Attleboro hitters. If he can the locals feel that they can do the rest, as they are a better base running and batting team. Two defeats in succession is rather a new thing for the Trojans and they can be depended upon to work their hardest to even the series and come back into the winning column.

JAMESTOWN.

[Regular correspondence of The News.]

Mrs. C. W. Wellcner of New York arrived Thursday at the Knowles cottage on Grinnell avenue, for the season.

The Yankton, which has been anchored in the east harbor for the past week, departed.

Mr. and Mrs. King of California have opened at "Crossways," which they have leased for the season.

Mr. Charles Sanders, who suffered a severe shock recently, is reported as improving.

The showery and foggy weather of the past few days has stopped much of the outside work on the new Thorndike cottages being hurried to completion for the summer season.

Messrs. Wake and Potter of the local inspection service were in town today to give the Connaicut her annual inspection preparatory to going on the line for the summer.

F. E. Worden has rented for S. W. Wolcott of Washington his cottage on Walcott avenue to F. H. Strawbridge of Philadelphia for the summer season. This cottage is the largest on the island to be leased.

THE NEW OPERA HOUSE LEASE.

The News was in error in stating that Mr. Soreira was the highest bidder for the lease of the Opera House. Manager McGowan of the Newport Amusement Association made an offer of $2,000 a year. Manager Lowy of the Majestic Theatre has for months been trying to secure the lease. Mr. Rugan, who succeeded in obtaining it, says he will begin work on the house as soon as he has control, doing such work as he can during the present engagements and preparing for more extensive work at the end of the summer season.

TO RETURN SATURDAY.

Battleships Fog-Bound, But Will Come Here Before Sailing for New York.

The battleships will return to Newport Saturday, after having fleet exercises during the morning. They will remain until Tuesday morning, when they will sail, being due in New York Wednesday evening to participate in the Maine monument unveiling on Memorial day. Upon arrival here tomorrow the usual 48-hour liberty will be given to such of the men as are entitled to it.

For the past two days the ships have been having a noisy time with their fog whistles, and consequently not doing much in the way of drilling. They are anchored along the Charlestown beaches and off the north of Block Island, practically fog-bound. Today they were to have had more torpedo practice and some sub-calibre practice with the guns, but the conditions have not favored.

Monday and Tuesday they engaged in fleet manoeuvres, and Wednesday torpedo and sub-calibre practice, but Thursday they could only toot foghorns and that work is still going on. If the weather is favorable it is expected that they will have fleet exercises on their way to New York.

Rear Admirals Nathaniel R. Usher, Cameron McR. Winslow and William B. Caperton returned Thursday from their court-martial duty in New York. Admiral Usher was taken to his flagship at sea by dispatch boat Yankton, Admiral Winslow stopped over night with his family here in the city and Admiral Caperton resumed command of the Naval Station, Narragansett Bay.

The submarines which were to have participated in a war game with the battleships were obliged to suspend operations and return to the harbor, because of the fog.

AN EXCELLENT BILL.

Comedy, Skating and Pictures at the Colonial of Exceptional Order.

An exceptionally good bill was presented at the Colonial Thursday, headed by the Hawkins-Siddon company in the farce comedy entitled "Love's Young Dream," a vehicle constructed for laughing purposes only. The comedy is well played by Jack Hawkins, Charlie Siddon and Nina Colo, who miss no opportunity to draw a laugh from their audiences. The Elltay Sisters, two clever roller skaters and dancers, were well received. They are adept skaters, showing some of the best fancy work seen in Newport, while their dancing specialty on rollers was warmly applauded. Irving Jones received a liberal share of applause, with a line of chatter and songs well put over.

The picture program featured, as usual, the latest Pathe Weekly, which contains much of educational value. The Biograph's offering, entitled "Olaf- an Atom," is well-constructed drama, admirably acted and photographed, while the comedy portion is well provided in the two offerings entitled "The Collector of Pearls," from the Selig company, and "Bunny and the Bunny Hug," from the Vitagraph studio.

PRESENTED WITH A RING.

John E. Sullivan, Steward and Chef of the Elks the Recipient.

At the meeting of Newport Lodge of Elks Thursday evening a handsome Elk's ring with suitable design was presented to Mr. John E. Sullivan, who for the past three years has served the lodge efficiently as steward and chef. Mr. Sullivan had an idea that the rotation of office should also include the steward and was trying to draw out, but the rest of the members recognized the peculiar fitness of the incumbent and to show their appreciation of the many good feeds he had prepared in the past some of them subscribed for the handsome ring. It was a rather informal affair, Secretary McCormick handing Mr. Sullivan the ring with brief appropriate remarks, and he in turn thanking the members for their appreciation of his work.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

—Steam Yacht Navigator, Mr. Davoll of Providence, was in port today.

—Schooner Abbie H. Green is discharging a cargo of 400 tons of ice for the Newport Ice Company.

—The fish shipment tonight will be very light. Two fares of mackerel arrived today, the Dixie with 600 and the Fitz Oaks with 150.

—Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton Fish Webster are entertaining at "Pen Craig Cottage" Mrs. Webster's mother, Mrs. Charles A. Post of New York.

—A. O.D. Taylor has rented for Dr. W. R. Howard his furnished cottage at 409 Broadway to Paymaster B. D. Rogers, U. S. N., for the summer season.

—Mrs. Halloran of 16 Levin street, wife of James Halloran of Fort Adams, is seriously ill at the Newport Hospital, where she went for treatment.

—DeBlois & Eldridge have rented for E. J. Berwind his cottage at the end of Bellevue court, known as "Court End Cottage," to Mrs. H. LeRoy Jones of New York for the season.

—The tulips were removed from the beds on the Mall this morning, the early blooming flowers having passed their usefulness. The beds are being prepared for their usual summer display.

—A still alarm at 9:48 Thursday evening called Chemical 2 and Hose 7 to the house at 50 Lee avenue, occupied by Mr. Sullivan. A chimney needed cleaning and the firemen did the job. There was no loss.

There was something of a fog on this morning and a large number of big tugs are tied up at the docks. This afternoon it cleared some, but it is still threatening. The total rainfall during the present wet period is given as .45 or practically half an inch.

—The summer time table of the Newport & Providence road is to go into effect Sunday. Ferryboat Bristol will go on the line and the route will be opened again for automobile traffic, by which there is already a demand for the larger boat.

—At a meeting of the motorcycle owners Thursday evening permanent officers were elected, Walter S. Tangley being chosen president, C. Sumner Rice, Jr., secretary-treasurer and Thomas C. Riley captain. A committee was appointed to prepare a constitution and by-laws and the charter is to remain open for two weeks. There are at present 15 members.

MOTORIZING THE DEPARTMENT.

Chief Kirwin's Plan Not Submitted to Board of Firewards for Approval.

Rumored Movement to Enlist Lower Part of the City by Promise of Another Automobile.

It is said by a member of the Board of Firewards that Chief Kirwin's proposition to motorize the entire department has not been considered by the board, which by law is an advisory body in the management of the department, in addition to the members acting as aids to the chief at fires. Promises are reported to have been made in the lower part of the city that, if that locality will help defeat the demand of the press and those who are crying for a modern department, another automobile chemical will be secured for the lower part of the city, and then the rest of the department will take care of itself. It is known that since the Board of Aldermen declined to purchase the horse-drawn, third-class steam fire engine there has been an active campaign in progress to "enlighten" such members of the Representative Council as might be susceptible as to why there is nothing in the cry of modernizing, and that Newport is different from any other place which has fires.

It has been stated for some time that 10 dependable horse-drawn steamers of the size proposed for Newport could be purchased for the $5,000 which has been appropriated for one. This statement is based on the prices which are being obtained for steamers which are still good, but are being sold for apparatus which is up-to-date, and there are so many of those going out of commission that they are a drug on the market.

As bearing out this statement, Chairman Robinson of the National Board of Fire Protection said in Boston Thursday that it is the prediction in insurance circles that there will be less than 100 steam fire engines built in the world in 1913, and none in 1915 when the type will be a thing of the past. He explained why New York is building the motor-propelled steam fire engine by stating that that city has fires high in skyscrapers and heavy pumps are required to meet the situation. However, there is but one New York and there are thousands of other places, demanding other modern fire apparatus. Hence the builders have not time to develop the excessively powerful pump which can be used only in New York, except now and then on a lone skyscraper in some other city, and which would not be purchased for a single building or two.

Mr. Robinson stated that what Newport and similar places should have are automobile pumping engines and modern appliances. He said the insurance people have looked at the Newport situation for some time, with a realization that the pumping situation here is excessively deficient, largely because of old, worn-out and weak apparatus.

It is suggested in insurance circles that if Newport continues to act on the advice of those who are putting stumbling blocks in the way of modernizing the department it will find that it is heeding false prophets. It will also be costly to property owners, for they will be compelled to pay for the upkeep of a department which is not coming up to the insurance idea of efficiency and will demand extra rates.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT.

Farce Comedy, Tiverton and Cruelty to Dog Cases on the Program.

There was a farce comedy on the program of the district court this morning, when the case against Catherine Brooks for discharging firearms on the street came up. This is the case where a soldier was hanging around the corner of Dearborn and Spring streets and she looked out and told him to go away. Some one said "Shoot," and she fired a revolver twice. It was not claimed that she shot at the man, only that she fired firearms on the street. She did not deny this and wished to be fined, so that she could go to jail and work it out. The hard-hearted court refused to allow her to make a martyr of herself, and despite her pleadings to be allowed to go to jail to work out her fine she was placed on probation. When she was first arraigned on this charge she pleaded not guilty and though friends offered to go bail for her appearance for trial she refused to accept it and went to jail. She would have been there until the time of trial had not her friends fooled her and released her on bail.

There were other cases however. Tiverton played a double header. Chief Manchester and Officer Grinnell were in with Frank Hayes, a Fall River boy who was charged with complicity in the recent larceny of two boxes of cigars, some cigarettes and $7 in money. Hayes and another from the Training Station were on furlough when they made the break. The other has already been sent to Cranston and Hayes went up this morning, pleading guilty to the charge. The other has already been discharged from the Station, as they do not care for boys or young men who go around breaking in at Tiverton or elsewhere, and now that Hayes also has been sent up he will cease to be a part of the naval force.

Officer Potter was in with a man charged with cruelty to a dog. He stopped a dog fight and that caused the complaint to be made. Even the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals did not endorse his arrest, but when he was arraigned he pleaded guilty and was fined, and the officer paid $16.20 for him.

At the police station this morning a man for drunkenness was fined. There was another case which was given a change of venue. It seems there was some trouble at Wickford this morning between the cook and a porter on steamer General, and shortly after leaving Wickford the cook sounded a lamp off the porter's head. It was not stated whether or not the lamp was lighted, but it was stated that the lamp lighted on the porter's head and he made a complaint. When it came to the "focus" it was seen that the complaint should have been made at Wickford and not at Newport, and the complainant was advised to make his charge on the other side of the bay.

NEW "PLUCKING BOARD."

Rear Admirals Chosen to Select Navy Officers for Retirement.

Secretary of the Navy Daniels Thursday appointed the board of five rear admirals to make selections of officers for compulsory retirement under the personnel act. The members of the board are Rear Admirals Aaron Ward, William H. H. Southerland, Austin M. Knight, Cameron McR. Winslow, and Frank F. Fletcher. Commander Edwin T. Pollock has been detailed as recorder.

The "plucking board," as it is commonly known in the service, will hold its first session June 2 at the Navy Department, to investigate the records of officers on the active list in the grades of captain, commander, lieutenant commander and lieutenant. The second meeting will be June 30, when a sufficient number of officers will be selected for compulsory retirement to make the 40 vacancies required annually by law.

The board under the personnel act may retire only five captains, four commanders, four lieutenant commanders, and two lieutenants, a total of 15 officers. The number of natural vacancies this year has been small and it is not expected that there will be any applicant for voluntary retirement.

The personnel law was amended by the appropriation act of August 22, 1912, repealing the section permitting officers to retire with an advanced grade. This year the officers will retire in the grade they hold at the date of retirement. The new law on this point provides: "That hereafter any officer retired under the provisions of sections eight and nine of the act approved March 3, 1899, an act to re-organize and increase the efficiency of the personnel of the navy and marine corps of the United States, shall be retired with the rank and three-fourths of the sea pay of the grade from which he is retired."

This provision removes the incentive to voluntary retirement and it is not expected that any officer will retire voluntarily under the act. In previous years there always have been several voluntary retirements, which reduced the number of compulsory retirements. This year, however, with no voluntary retirements expected, the plucking board probably will need to select for compulsory retirement the full number permitted by law.

MEXICO'S BURDEN.

Land Holdings so Concentrated That Progress is Very Slow.

[John Kenneth Turner, in Metropolitan.]

In the United States the farmer is an humble person; in Mexico he is a king of millionaires. The typical farm in Mexico is not of 160 acres, nor yet of 1,000, but of a million. The Madero holdings in Coahuila run into the millions of acres. Nowhere in the world, not in India nor Egypt nor any country, are found the vast cotton plantations that are discovered in the state of Durango.

Land holdings are concentrated to a greater degree in Mexico today than they were in France in 1789. Seven thousand families hold practically all the arable land. If the distribution were proportionately the same as it is in the United States, 1,000,000 Mexican families would be in possession of titles to landed property.

The general result of this system in Mexico is that the country has fallen far behind her neighbors in everything that stands for progress. The well-to-do are too far away from the poor to be of any use to them, and the poor are too poor to be of any use to themselves or to society. While tremendously rich in natural resources, Mexico is very poor when it comes to production. Especially is Mexico poor in agricultural production. The million-acre farms lie mostly fallow. Modern machinery is needed, but modern machinery will never be introduced so long as the peon is so cheap that primitive methods are cheaper than machine methods. Mexico has no home market to speak of, for only a small proportion of the population ever has any money to spend for anything. Many of the richest families live in Europe and never visit the country from which they derive their sustenance. As to the rest, it may be said that the population of Mexico is only 3,000,000. The other 12,000,000 are cattle, or may be classed as cattle, so far as furnishing a home market is concerned.

ADVICE FOR THE DEMOCRATS.

The Party Being Admonished in Letters, Circulars and Speeches.

Counsel Will Continue Until Tariff Bill is Disposed of—Long Senate Session Predicted.

[Washington correspondence of The News.]

WASHINGTON, May 22.—The Democratic party is receiving a lot of advice these days. Not only President Wilson, members of his cabinet, Senators and Representatives, individually, but the party, collectively, is being told what to do in letters, circulars and speeches. Notably has this been done in speeches in the House and up to the present time in speeches in the Senate. And what is also a fact more advice in speeches in the Senate may be expected before the tariff bill passes. With the utmost concern, those elder statesmen on the Republican side and some who have only been in the Senate a short time, advise the Democrats as to procedure and as to what final action should be if the party desires to retain the good will of the people.

Now, the Republicans are not going to filibuster on the tariff—they have so asserted—but they are going to discuss each paragraph and tell what will happen to the Democrats if they do not restore the Payne rates or at least make the reduction much less than in the Underwood bill. If the Democrats were going straight along to destruction it would seem to be party wisdom by the Republicans to let them do so, but that is not politics—not the way politics is played in Washington.

Even without hearings on the tariff bill in committee there is a prospect for a long session of the Senate. I hear men talk about September and October as months which may come and go before the sessions ends. If the Republican determination to debate every item at length is carried out the guesses may be right. The Democrats have not a majority which can force things. If free sugar and free wool are held in the bill the margin is very narrow. And a narrow margin cannot force long sessions and maintain a quorum all the time.

New Senators are restive under the possible protracted debates. They are looking for methods to maintain a quorum and to count quorums of Senators who announce pairs and do not vote. That is an idea of John Sharp Williams, whose House experience has convinced him that when a man is present and his name is recorded as present for the purpose of announcing his pair he ought to figure in a quorum. There will be talk of changing the rules, but the Senate will move very slowly in that direction.

While it seems certain that there will be a move in the direction of currency legislation, it is the intention of the leaders to prevent any other matters of importance coming up. In the Senate, however, the committees are reporting bills from time to time, many important measures, and no doubt efforts will be made to have them considered. Again, no one controls the Senate, while the House—direct from the people—is controlled by a very few men. Three or four men in the House can decide what shall be considered and can shut out what they do not want brought forward.

Chairman Hay of the military committee says there will be no legislation looking toward short term enlistments at this session to meet the complaint that the army cannot recruit a sufficient number of men to meet the requirements of the service.

"I would be in favor of cutting off the provision for a three-year service as reserves," he said. "That is what prevents enlistments. The term is now for four years with the colors and three years as reserves. Men object to tying themselves up for seven years although they might enlist for four years. That is the navy and marine corps period."

A few days after the tariff bill had passed the House Chairman Underwood remarked that he felt like a boy who had been in a long fight and had been beaten up a great deal. "I am tired, and sore with the long contest," he said, "and would not want to go through another." The House was in session from 11 o'clock in the morning till 11 o'clock each night and Underwood was on the job most of the time.

Champ Clark did not think very much of the tariff debate in the House. "It was mostly picking at items," said the Speaker, "not really such tariff arguments as we had four years ago." It should also be remembered that there was less opportunity to amend the bill on account of the large Democratic majority.

ENCOURAGED BY GOOD RECORD.

Yale Alumni Discuss Prospects for a Championship Ball Team.

NEW YORK, May 23.—Yale alumni and undergraduates at New Haven and throughout the east are discussing the prospects of a championship base ball team for the Blue this season. The remarkable record made by the 'Varsity nine to date has encouraged the belief that Yale has an excellent chance to capture both the Princeton and the Harvard series. Since the season opened early in April, Yale has played 25 games, all but three having been won. The University of Pennsylvania is the only college to defeat the Eli players, taking one of the three game series. The other two defeats were administered by the New York Giants, both the Cubs and regulars winning five-inning games from Yale.

There remain but two games to be played before the Princeton and Harvard series begin. Tomorrow Yale plays Cornell at Ithaca, and Tuesday, Williams comes to New Haven. May 31 the first Princeton game is scheduled, and June 21 the third and final game of the Harvard series will be played, should a deciding contest be needed. Since the double defeat at the hands of the Giants, the Yale nine has scored 16 consecutive victories, several of them being extra inning contests.

ELIMINATION DAY.

Inter-Collegiate Athletic Association Track and Field Meet Begins.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., May 23.—The athletic activities of New England college undergraduates, except those of Harvard and Yale, were focussed today in the white-walled Harvard stadium, where the twenty seventh annual championship track and field meeting of the New England Inter-collegiate Athletic Association will be begun late today. Sixteen colleges are represented in this year's games, more than ever before. Dartmouth brought down from the New Hampshire hills the largest team entered by any college. From Maine came the athletic strength of all its colleges—Bowdoin, Colby, Bates and University of Maine. A small team made the trip from the distant University of Vermont and a smaller representation than in other years came up from Brown. Wesleyan and Trinity represented Connecticut.

The Massachusetts teams were the most numerous. There were Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Amherst, Williams, Tufts, Holy Cross, Worcester, Polytechnic Institute and Massachusetts Agricultural College, the latter being represented at the games for the first time.

This was elimination day, with most of the 251 entered at large scheduled to compete in the trial heats of 10 of the 14 events. Less than one half of those competing today could qualify for the semi-final and final heats, which are to be held tomorrow. As in recent years the opening day of the meeting was marked by damp conditions. Indications this forenoon, however, were that performances would not be greatly handicapped, as the stadium track is noted for its drainage qualities. It is reputed to be the fastest track in the world and, as the New England association has never before met there, this was given as a reason to expect new records. Close followers of college athletics looked for at least two, and possibly five, new marks.

ABSCONDED 14 YEARS AGO.

Frederick T. Moore, Former Boston Bank Employe, Dies in Chili.

BOSTON, May 23.—The death in Valparaiso, Chili, of Frederick T. Moore, former assistant receiving teller of the National Bank of Commerce of Boston, who absconded 14 years ago with $53,000 of the bank's funds was reported here today.

Moore fled this city in 1898, when a discrepancy was found in his books, and was arrested in Valparaiso a year later on a charge of embezzlement. After a lower court acceded to a proposal to extradite Moore, he appealed to the supreme court of Chili and in 1900 that tribunal set him free. Moore, who formerly lived in Newton, was well known as a yachting enthusiast.

FRECKLES.

Don't Hide Them With a Veil; Remove Them With the Othine Prescription.

This prescription for the removal of freckles was written by a prominent physician and is usually so successful in removing freckles and giving a clear, beautiful complexion that it is sold by any of the Liggett's stores under an absolute guarantee to refund the money if it fails.

Don't hide your freckles under a veil; get an ounce of othine and remove them. Even the first few applications should show a wonderful improvement, some of the lighter freckles vanishing entirely.

Be sure to ask the druggist for the double strength othine; it is this that is sold on the money-back guarantee.

PIMPLES RED, LARGE AND DISFIGURING

So Ashamed Did Not Go Out. In Night's Time Full of Them. Cured by Cuticura Soap and Ointment.

267 Watkins St., Brooklyn, N. Y.—"When I was sixteen years of age, I noticed blackheads coming out on my face, then pimples. All kinds. I was so ashamed of myself that I did not go out of the house. In fact I did not want to show myself to my friends. Only the face was broken out and some parts of the lips. The pimples were red, large and disfiguring. Some came to a head and some came in big bumps, some were as large as a quarter and they were scattered all over my face in blotches. In a night's time my face was so full of them that I could not sleep on account of the itch.

"There was no cure. Medicines, salves, pills, nothing helped, until I saw about the Cuticura Soap and Ointment in the paper. I used them just as directions told me and to my astonishment, I found a great change, and after a week or so, I was cured. My complexion is rosy and smooth instead of oily, rough and pimply as it used to be." (Signed) Albert Goldberg, Jan. 12, 1912.

For more than a generation Cuticura Soap and Ointment have been the favorites for the treatment of eczemas, rashes, itching, irritations and other torturing, disfiguring humors of the skin and scalp. Sold everywhere. Sample of each mailed free, with 32-p. Skin Book. Address post-card "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston."

Tender-faced men should use Cuticura Soap Shaving Stick, 25c. Sample free.

A SELF-MADE MAN.

ices of the church, instead of con- ering himself with their business matters. It is for the minister to so lead his people with the Holy Spirit that wherever they come to church that there be no occasion for interference with the business affairs.

Grace to the Rev. Gideon A. Burgess, secretary of the Rhode Island Home Missionary Society, delivered the charge to the pastor, and injected a little humor into his speech whenever opportunity offered. He began by enlarging on the word "pastor" as used in the program. He liked that old Latin word, which means "shepherd," because it implies his idea of what a minister of the church should be. The shepherd's duty is to feed and comfort his flock, and in turn it is the duty of the flock to feed, comfort and glorify him. How easy it is to get away from the flock! And that makes it so much harder for the shepherd. People must come to the service of the church with a longing and a hunger for the word of God, and not come with feeble appetites for the love of God.

Another point emphasized by Rev. Mr. Burgess was this: "Never speak disrespectfully of your pastor in the presence of your children. Very often he is the truest holy man they ever know, his is the embodiment of righteousness par excellence. Mr. Burgess recalled a case where the parents were continually criticising their pastor in the presence of their children, the main criticism being his big hands and big hands, and the result was that that minister could do absolutely nothing with those children, even when he was around they were unconsciously thinking about his big hands and big hands. Mr. Burgess earnestly urged a more reverent spirit towards the pastor, particularly for the sake of the little children who may come under his instruction.

An anthem, "Blessed Be the Name of the Lord," was sung by the choir, and Rev. G. A. Hulbert of the United Congregational Church of this city, closed the speaking with the address of welcome on the part of the ministers of Newport. The ministers in particular feel, said Mr. Hulbert, that there is coming a different emphasis in religious life than we have experienced before, that there is something deeper in the regular worship than the mere external. The foremost thinkers of the world tell us that the truly intellectual man must also be a Christian man; that there must be something more than the mere thinking of the mind, something more than worship on which man may base his principles. There must be the quickening spiritual thinking as a force which enforces morality. "You can come at a time," said Mr. Hulbert to the new pastor, "when your people can count for most. Today is a time for intellectual men to be Christian men."

In conclusion, Mr. Hulbert spoke of the manner in which some ministers unnecessarily apologize for being in the ministry. When he started out, in his career he chose the most honorable career in which man can engage and chose the ministry, or, as he said, the ministry chose him and this altogether too frequent habit of men apologizing for being in the ministry should cease.

The installation program came to a close with the singing of the installation hymn, "The Church's One Foundation," and the benediction by the Rev. William Stephenson Holder of New York city.

SUCCESSFUL IN MINISTRY.

Rev. Clifford L. Miller Belongs to a Family of Preachers.

Rev. Clifford Leonard Miller, the new pastor of the Union Congregational Church, comes to Newport from Haverhill, Mass., having already been in the city about four months. He was for seven years pastor of the First Congregational Church in Haverhill, going to that charge while a student at Andover Seminary. He was chiefly instrumental in the erection of a new building there. He severed his connection much to the regret of the members of the church. He is not the first member of the family to preach the gospel. Indeed, all his grandparents have been active workers in either the Baptist or Methodist churches, his cousin being a bishop in the African Methodist Episcopal Church.

Rev. Mr. Miller is a graduate of Yale University in 1904 and Andover Seminary in 1907, taking up special graduate work in 1908 at Harvard. He made a trip to England and France in 1912. He was extended a unanimous call to the Union Congregational church November 25, 1912, and began his pastorate here on the first Sunday in January.

AN ANCIENT MAINE BRIDGE.

[Calais Advertiser.]

Down-Maine historians have tried in vain for the history of an ancient bridge the remains of which may be seen, leading from the main land of Deer Isle to Stinsons Neck, or the settlement known as Sunset. Stinsons Neck is separated from the main island by a half tide creek across which there is a good highway. Here the ruins of an old stone bridge may still be seen. So far as known, it antedates the settlement of white men on the island, and believed to have been constructed by Indians. Many interesting Indian relics have been found in the vicinity, and on one of the smaller islands not far at the eastern entrance to Penobscot Reach, the late Frank Hamilton Cushing, the well known archeologist, a few years ago discovered the remains of what he declared to be a permanent Indian village—not a temporary fishing camp, as most of the coast settlements of the Indians were.

A CITY ON CHINESE RIVERS.

[New York Mail.]

The rivers flowing through Canton, China, have upon their waters practically a separate city, composed of about 300,000 persons, living on sampans and houseboats. These floating homes are moored together in such a way that streets and squares are formed, through which the tradesmen with their wares. Kitchen boats move up the liquid thoroughfares, barbers with scissors paddle about ringing bells, there are fish boats, clothing boats and vegetable boats, and even floating boats to convey the dead to earthly rest. There are floating hotels, floating restaurants, floating dance halls, and even floating leper boats, from which emerge pathetic figures who hold out trays for alms.

The inhabitants of the city never come in with the shore folks and seldom set foot on land. In some cases the men have occupations on shore, but this is rare, and they chiefly make a livelihood by dredging for coal dropped by passing steamers or by searching for articles let overboard by tourists.

Each sampan with its scant 20 feet of room under its bamboo roof from stem to stern people. It is a rude one room affair, and in most cases extremely dirty. Over the stern is usually hung a basket, where squawking poultry and squealing pigs bewail the fates that cast them into such cramped quarters.

THE TOP HAT.

[New York Evening Post.]

Social historians are disputing about the year which really marks the centenary of the "top hat." It may be that one reason for the warmth displayed is that the top hat is going so rapidly. Thirty years ago you could not have thrown a brick in lower Broadway without hitting a "stovepipe" hat. Today you seldom see one during business hours, and any person wearing one is instinctively set down as being on his way to some ceremonial occasion. The silk hat has, indeed, become something like a wedding garment. It is kept in reserve for use when needed as a mark, not so much of personal dignity as of deference to opinion. Thus President Wilson and President Taft felt it incumbent on them to appear at the inauguration in a glistening "tile." But both sought speedily thereafter the relief of the soft hat or modest "bowler." The top hat may have a first centenary, if the authorities are able to agree upon the date, but it seems doubtful if it will be there to see its second.

The Writing on the Wall

NEBUCHADNEZZAR in ancient Biblical times saw the shining mural message, but could not read it. And there are many who are like him today. They see the letters blazoned on the guideposts that point the road up the broad highway of Opportunity, yet fail to decipher their meaning.

How many business men, for example, have yet read the message in "Parcel Post?"

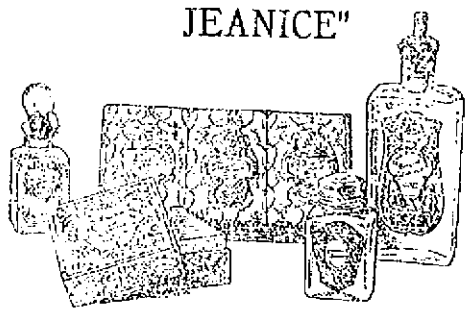

The parcel post enables the small merchant to deliver goods to customers within his zone more cheaply and much more quickly than any outsider can. It brings every buyer within a fifty mile radius of his place of business almost to his door. It opens up facilities for trade that he never had before.

AREN'T THESE FACTS SOMETHING FOR THE WISE MAN TO THINK ABOUT?

ALMOST A RECORD.

dubious about the Council doing anything at this time. It was likely that action would be deferred until the budget for next year is made up. Inspector Nash said the application was put in so that it would be before the city for consideration at the proper time, when-ever that would be; of course, the sooner they could have the walks the better they would like it.

Mr. Albro suggested that the place should be curbed and graded before sidewalks were laid and it seemed that the sewer should be provided first. The mayor said the stretch is a long one and for curb and granolithic the highway department had made an estimate of $4,500. It was decided that it is now too late to include this item in the docket for Tuesday's meeting and the only way it can go in is by unanimous consent.

Mr. Kelly said there is to be a public trial of a trip combination pumping engine at Chelsea Saturday and undoubtedly representatives would be present from most of the neighboring places. It seemed to him Newport should be represented and he thought Chief Kirwin should be authorized to go. It would cost only traveling expenses and he would meet men from other departments. He made this suggestion in view of the chief's recent conversion to motor-driven apparatus. The idea seemed a good one and it was decided to make Chief Kirwin a committee to represent the board at the trial in Chelsea Saturday afternoon, and to pay his expenses out of the fund for Council and Aldermen, thus saving the fire department funds.

Mr. Kirby suggested that a caretaker should be engaged for the playgrounds. The tennis courts needs attention daily, the diamond needs rolling and mowing and there are many things to be done which would keep a man busy. Mr. Albro thought it would be better to wait until after the meeting Tuesday and see what the Council does. The Council may have some plan for caring for the playgrounds and in that case the board's action in securing caretakers might be wasted.

The idea was to have a man for three or four months, and it was thought one man might do the work on both playgrounds. Also, there was talk of having a general supervisor of playgrounds, to have charge of all. The mayor said the School Committee is prepared to co-operate with the board in paying the salary of such a man. It was finally decided to postpone even consideration of the matter of hiring until after the Council has had the opportunity to express its ideas in this respect at the meeting Tuesday evening.

There was absolutely nothing else that the members of the mayor seemed able to bring up, and the meeting adjourned.

MIDDLETOWN.

Professor Churchill the Speaker at Aquidneck Grange Meeting.

[Regular correspondence of The News.]

Aquidneck Grange held its last meeting for May Thursday evening at the town hall, Worthy Master Mrs. May Chase Spooner presiding. Applications continue to be received for membership.

Following the regular routine of business Worthy Lecturer George L. Sisson presented as the speaker of the evening Professor Bigelow Churchill, instructor in English at Kingston College, who came in place of Professor George R. Cobb of the department of Horticulture, who was expected to speak upon "Varieties of Fruits," but was unable to be present. While most of the professors from the college are well known on the island Professor Churchill, who is from the West, was a stranger. His subject, "The Ideal as a Factor in American Life," was well handled and was sufficiently out of the ordinary line of agricultural subjects to be a pleasing innovation.

Following the address Mr. Fred P. Webber gave a reading from Holm F. Day, entitled "Elekanor B. Atkinson's Tavern." As usual an encore was desired and one of Lincoln's Cape Cod Ballads was given. "When Nathan led the choir," even a third number, "If I da'sn," left the audience still unsatisfied. A rising vote of thanks testified to the appreciation of the evening's talk and readings.

Light refreshments were served by the feast committee and there was dancing for the young people. Miss Agnes Murphy acted as pianist during the Grange session and with Misses Marie Vanicek and Sarah Peckham played for the dancing and general singing.

Mr. and Mrs. Elisha Carle Peckham of Peckham avenue are observing informally today the sixty-fifth anniversary of their marriage, at their home, "Seven Pines." Mr. Peckham has held for a number of years the distinction of being Middletown's oldest citizen and will be 90 in November. Mrs. Peckham recently observed her eighty-third birthday. They were married at what is known as the Nathaniel Peckham homestead by Rev. John O. Choules of Newport. Of their family of 12 children 11 are living and all are located reasonably near their parents, most of them on the island. The children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren number about 90, including those who have married into the family. Mr. and Mrs. Peckham are well and enjoy life to the full.

The day was made pleasant by the calling of relatives and neighbors, by letters and many cards, and by a great profusion of flowers, among which was an artistic basket from Aquidneck Grange, bearing the letters "P of H." and the figures "65," worked out in flowers. Mr. and Mrs. Peckham are among the charter members of this order, Mr. Peckham having been its first promoter and Mrs. Peckham its present captain, which office she has long held. She also occupies the same position in the Newport County Pomona Grange.

Town Sergeant Thomas Ward and Mrs. Ward, who have been living at the Tryphena Anne Peckham farm on South Aquidneck avenue, are removing this week to the Schwarz cottage on Paradise avenue.

The parents of Mr. William C. Hubbell of Prospect avenue, who have been here on a visit, returned Thursday evening to New York.

FACTS ABOUT FOOD.

[Chicago News.]

Coffee, like tea, was from an early date welcomed as a rival to alcoholic liquors. Writing in 1659, shortly after its introduction into England, Howell makes the comment "that this coffa-drink hath caused a great sobriety amongst all nations; formerly clerks, apprentices, etc., used to take their morning draughts in ale, beer, or wine, which often made them unfit for business. Now they play the good fellows in this wakeful and civil drink. The worthy gentleman, Sir James Muddiford, who introduced the practice thereof first in London, deserves much respect of the whole nation."

The lemon, which is going to be dear this year on account of a shortage in the crop, has a very clear history. Unknown to the Greeks and Romans, it was introduced into Spain by the Arabs in the twelfth century, and in 1494 was being cultivated in the Azores and shipped in large quantities to the continent of Europe. The lemon tree is very fertile, a good specimen in Sicily ripening as many as 3,000 lemons a season.

Until 60 years ago cocoa was taxed in England as a patent medicine, and could be sold only in packets with a stamped wrapper.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED.

Miss Margaret Claxton to Marry Mr. Morgan Hebard.

Mrs. William Rehn Claxton of Chestnut Hill, Pa., announces the engagement of her daughter, Miss Margaret Champlin Claxton, to Mr. Morgan Hebard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Hebard of Chestnut Hill.

Miss Claxton, who through her mother is the granddaughter of the late John La Farge, the distinguished artist, made her debut last season at a tea given in her honor by Mrs. B. Franklin Pepper, at her country place, "Ballygarth," Chestnut Hill. Miss Claxton is also the granddaiece of Mrs. William Pepper.

Mr. Hebard is a graduate of Yale, class of 1910, and a member of the Philadelphia Cricket, Merion Cricket and Racquet Clubs.

Miss Claxton is expected to spend a portion of the summer with her grandmother, Mrs. John La Farge, at her cottage on Sunnyside place, in this city.

CHEAP ALCOHOL IN CHINA.

[Consular Report from Hankow.]

A California manufacturer makes inquiry relative to the market for alcohol at Hankow. There seems to be no opportunity for such business here. There is already one modern distillery here, the Societe Franco-Chinoise de Distillerie de Hankou, which supplies alcohol at a low figure. The company's manager informed me in January that they were putting alcohol 70 per cent pure on the market for 6.60 taels a picul (133 1-3 pounds). This is 3.7 cents United States gold a pound at the bank rate of exchange for January 15 (72½), and at normal rates would be even less. This concern has the obvious advantage of being on the field and selling direct, thus eliminating freight charges and brokerage.

The product of the French distillery is mainly used for the preparation of Chinese liquors, for which a low grade alcohol is perfectly satisfactory. The total net imports of foreign alcohol at this port in 1911 amounted to 5,491 gallons. Alcohol does not appear in the list of native imports.

ORRINE CURES WHISKEY AND BEER HABIT

ORRINE is the standard remedy and is everywhere recognized as the most successful and reliable home treatment for the "Drink Habit." It is highly praised by thousands of women, because it has restored their loved ones to lives of sobriety and usefulness, and the weekly wages which at one time were spent for "Drink" are now used to purchase the necessaries and many comforts for home. Any wife or mother who wants to save her husband or son from "Drink" will be glad to know that she can purchase ORRINE at our store, and if no benefit is obtained after a trial the money will be refunded. Can be given secretly.

ORRINE is prepared in two forms: No. 1, secret treatment, a powder, absolutely tasteless and odorless, given secretly in food or drink; ORRINE No. 2, in pill form, is for those who desire to take voluntary treatment.

Costs only $1.00 per box. Ask for free booklet telling all about ORRINE.

AUCTION SALES.

Mortgagee's Sale.

Will be sold at public auction on the premises, the third day of June, 1913 at twelve o'clock noon, by virtue of the power of sale contained in a certain mortgage deed made and executed by the Rhode Island Coal Company to Charles Hayden and others, the present holders thereof, dated September 21, 1911, and recorded in Portsmouth Land Evidence, in Mortgage Book No. 1, pages 274-281 inclusive, for breach of the conditions of said mortgage deed, the following described personal estate and real estate with the additions thereto, buildings, fixtures and machinery contained therein and situated thereon, to wit:—

FIRST: Its mining plant situated on a certain parcel of land in Portsmouth aforesaid, it being the tract of land described in a certain indenture between Henrietta H. Vassar and Henry M. Whitney of Brookline, the county of Norfolk and Commonwealth aforesaid, dated September 8, 1908 and recorded in the Portsmouth Land Evidence in Volume 25, Page 364.

The designation "mining plant" hereinbefore used shall for the purpose of this mortgage be construed as including all buildings of every kind and nature, boilers, engines, shafting, machinery of every description, the apparatus and equipment necessary for operating and maintaining its business, office buildings and furniture, the machinery used for making Briquettes, all diamond drills and the machinery pertaining thereto, all breakers and machinery attached thereto, surface tracks, water works and in general, all personal property of every kind and nature wherever the same may be located, used in the conduct of its business.

SECOND: (a) That parcel of land situated in the said Portsmouth, bounded and described as follows:

Southwesterly partly on land now or late of J. and L. ## COURT ADJOURNS TO TUESDAY.

Legality of Purchase of Other Companies by Machinery Raised.

BOSTON, May 23.—The question of the legality of the purchase of other companies by the United Shoe Machinery Company was raised by Judge Putnam at today's proceedings in the dissolution suit brought against the company by the government. On being informed that the capital of the United was $25,000,000 at the time of its organization in 1899, the judge asked the government if that amount would not be needed in acquiring new companies as a growing business. "I thought," said the judge, "that some of the companies might be gathered in legitimately in the development and growth of the business."

William S. Gregg, special assistant to the United States Attorney General, said: "The company is entitled, I suppose, like any other, to gather in new branches of the business, but it has gathered in practically all the eyelet branch of the shoe machinery business."

The government, after conferring with counsel for the defense, withdrew today the allegation that the Boston Blacking Company was acquired in pursuance of a plan to monopolize the shoe machinery business. The company is engaged in furnishing material for finishing shoes and is not legally within the scope of the bill on which the dissolution suit is based.

Excluding the blacking company, the government showed that of the 17 concerns acquired during the first two years and a half of the existence of the United Company only 2 are in operation today—the Ross-Moyer Manufacturing Company of Cincinnati, Ohio, and Pearson & Bennion Limited of Leicester, England.

The court adjourned this afternoon to Tuesday.

Pape's decision was announced when President Stein informed him that he was to be farmed out to a Canadian League club.

THE PRISCILLA DEPARTS.

That big noise heard about 9 o'clock this morning was all caused by steamer Priscilla hauling out in the dense fog and notifying smaller craft that she was moving. She went to Fall River and tonight will go to New York as the freight boat and will then be hauled out on the dry dock Monday she will take the place of steamer Plymouth on the Fall River line. Wednesday the Commonwealth will take the place of the Providence and these two boats will prepare for the opening of the Providence Line. he Priscilla has been here since last year, when she broke her shaft at New York and was towed here to receive a new shaft.

FINANCIAL.

NEW YORK, May 23, Wall Street.—The market opened with Amalgamated Copper 74¼, Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe 99⅜, Baltimore & Ohio 98⅜, Brooklyn Rapid Transit 91½, Canadian Pacific 237½, Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul 103, Erie 29¾, Great Northern preferred 127, New York Central 100⅝, Pennsylvania 110, Reading 161⅜, Rock Island 18¼, Southern Pacific 97½, Union Pacific 151⅜, United States steel 60¼, United States Steel preferred 106½.

Noon—Trading during the morning fell off considerably and there was no sign of a continuation of the movement which raised prices generally yesterday. Standard stocks, which have been unaffected of late by liquidation of various low priced issues, seemed more sensitive today to adverse influences, and, although there was little pressure against the list, such business as was done was at the expense of quoted values. Reports from Europe indicated that renewed depression had come over the foreign market and some reflection of this feeling was visible from the outset here. Failure of yesterday's rise to create public interest in the market discouraged bullish activity. Bonds were irregular. Money on call, steady, at 2¾ per cent; prime mercantile paper, 5½ @ ⅝. Exchanges, $322,534,767; balances, $26,304,587.

"THE EASIEST WAY" NEXT.

Malley-Denison Company to Continue Its Production of Plays.

Expressions of pleasure can be heard on all sides since the announcement that the change in the management of the Opera House is not to interfere with the run of the Malley-Denison Stock Company. The company has become an institution of Newport for the summer and will continue its production of the best plays to be had.

"The Third Degree" is giving excellent satisfaction and drawing good audiences. Next week's offering will be David Belasco's remarkable success, "The Easiest Way," one of the greatest plays of modern times. It held the attention of New York theatre-goers many months at the Republic and is now making a tour of the country, doing a big business everywhere. It has been classed as the greatest triumph ever achieved by Mr. Belasco, the master producer of the American stage.

"The Easiest Way" is a play which teaches a moral. If the stage has a mission it is, as the great master, Shakespeare, announced, "to hold the mirror up to nature," to show life as it is and let the auditors deduce the lesson. This is what Eugene Walters, the author, has done in "The Easiest Way." He shows that what may sometimes seem the easiest way is often the hardest, and if those who witness it will profit by the mistakes of poor Laura their visit to the Opera House on this occasion will have served two purposes. They will not only have seen one of the most interesting plays of modern times but will have been taught the folly of selfishness and falsehood.

In giving this play to the people of Newport Messrs. Malley & Denison promise one of the most beautiful productions ever seen on the local stage. Miss Shirley, Mr. Barrett, Mr. Crane, Miss Nelson, Miss Atwood and Mr. Chandler will all be seen at their best in this play.

FOR ENLISTED MEN.

Narragansett Bay Branch of Army and Navy Union Organized.

At the Army and Navy Young Men's Christian Association Thursday evening Department Inspector Rush M. Hoag organized Narragansett Bay Naval Branch, No. 17, of the Army and Navy Union of the United States of America, with the following officers:

Commander—C. P. Taylor.
Senior Vice Commander—G. W. Metz.
Junior Vice Commander—J. J. Lowe.
Adjutant—J. N. Klion.
Chaplain—E. O. Andrews.
Paymaster—F. Buchanan.
Quartermaster—P. P. Burck.

The Army and Navy Union is an organization which with the sanction of the departments is working for proper and desirable legislation for the enlisted men and to secure justice for them. Among the many objects which it seeks are proper representation in the halls of Congress, votes in Presidential elections, jury representatives of the enlisted men in court-martial, and that in time of war or sudden need those petty officers who have successfully passed examinations to become warrant officers, but who have not been promoted for lack of vacancies, may be automatically made warrant officers to fill vacancies on reserve ships. A graded retirement by law for enlisted men is also one of the objects of the union, a bill to secure this having already been prepared by members and presented to Congress.

GREAT DEMAND FOR LOTS.

Hoppin and Kesson Properties in Northern Part of the City Platted.

The demand for building lots in the northern part of the city has become so great that the owners of the Hoppin and Kesson properties on Broadway and Vernon avenues have been induced to plat their properties and offer them for sale in lots. Streets have been plotted, and it is expected that the lots will sell quickly. J. B. Parsonage & Son, who had good success with the sale of the lots on the Wilbur Farm tract in the Carroll avenue district for Mr. George Gordon King, are acting as development agents for these estates.

The Hoppin land is on the northerly side of Vernon avenue, and the Kesson land on the southerly side. The total area of the former is 223,126 square feet, and that of the latter 41,293 square feet. A street to be known as Hoppin street, running northerly from Vernon avenue, 200 feet from and parallel to Broadway, will be opened into the Hoppin land, running northerly about 250 feet and then turning easterly and running about 300 feet, meeting a way to be known as Hamilton place, which will open into Vernon avenue. There will be 41 lots in the Hoppin tract and 11 in the Kesson tract, each about 50X100 feet. The Hoppin land is owned by the S. H. Hoppin estate and the Kesson by the J. B. Kesson estate.

A SELF-MADE MAN.

Rev. Mr. Miller Welcomed to Ministry, to State Relations and to City.

New Pastor of Union Congregational Church, Mr. Kingsley's Service Being Severed.

The installation of Rev. Clifford Leonard Miller as pastor of the Union Congregational Church, Thursday, was attended by several well known clergymen of the denomination. The council convened in the afternoon, to examine the candidate and to formulate the relations between the church and the late pastor, Rev. Harold M. Kingsley, and then proceeded to install Rev. Mr. Miller. After due examination and deliberation the action of the church was endorsed and the pastor recommended for installation. Rev. G. A. Hulbert of the United Congregational Church presided and Rev. Mr. Miller, after answering the questions put to him, presented his statement in a written paper. In this he gave an interesting sketch of his boyhood life and school days, which was much enjoyed and showed him to be a self-made man.

Rev. Clifford L. Miller.

The evening was devoted to the installation service, which opened at 8 o'clock with an organ selection by Miss Eunice Berry. Then followed the reading of the minutes of the council by the scribe and the invocation by Rev. James A. Wright of Haverhill, Mass. The choir sang the anthem, "Gloria," and the Scripture lesson was read by Rev. P. G. Moore Brown of Portland, Maine.

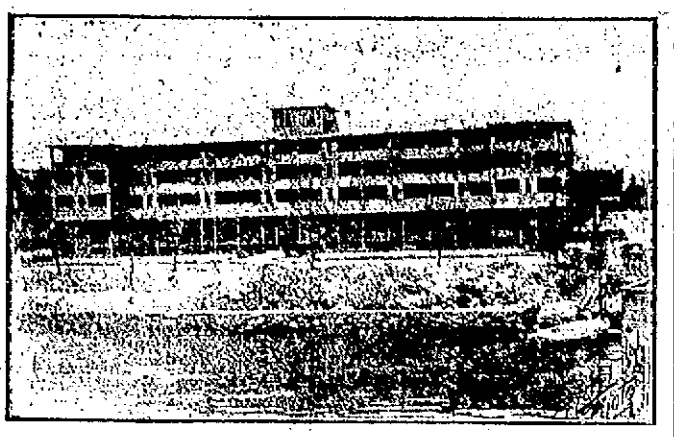

When the audience listened to the big treat of the evening, a sermon by Rev. Gallis Glenn Atkins of Central Church, Providence. His text was taken from Isaiah, XLII, the first four verses and the preached an inspiring sermon. The great thing about any great truth, he said, is that all true living upholds it and all true living suggests it. Dr. Atkins took each of the four verses and used it for a sub-topic, and said in closing that the task for the new pastor is to bring forth judgment in his flock. He shall not cry or lift up his voice in the streets, but must work among his people. This age demands peace and comfort, and the kingdom will be brought about through the healing spirit of the Gospel, rather than by any cheap self-advertised method, of which we see a good deal today.

A solo, "O Lord, Rebuke Me Not," by Mrs. Sarah Richards, was followed by a prayer of installation by Rev. Robert Wheler of Hartford, Conn., who took the place of Dr. James E. McConnell of Providence. Rev. James D. Dingwell of Pawtucket extended the right hand of fellowship, giving the incoming pastor a hearty welcome into the field of ministery. "First of all," said he, "I want to welcome you as an old friend, because I knew you five or six years back and toiled with you. Secondly, I want to welcome you as a Congregational minister; also I welcome you in the name of all the Congregational ministers in the state, and welcome you to that type of warm friendship existing in the ministry, and lastly welcome you to that true spirit of brotherly service, and so fulfil not only the law, but the love of Christ."

Miss Clara M. Hice rendered "Eternal Rest," and then came the charge to the pastor by Rev. T. Nelson Baker of Pittsfield, Mass., who took the place of Dr. F. E. Emrich of Boston. "God has honored you to the calling of all callings," said Rev. Mr. Baker in addressing the new pastor, "and it is up to you to embrace that calling to the best of your ability and power. What is a minister's particular work, as distinct from the ordinary citizen's? It is to make men see God; to teach that man cannot live by bread alone. Many men have more money and more bread than they need—money and bread to waste, and yet they are not living. Rev. Mr. Baker cautioned the pastor to concentrate his endeavors and minister to his people at the ser-

ALMOST A RECORD.

Aldermen Complete All Business and Adjourn at Unusually Early Hour.

Authorize Chief Kirwin to be Present at Fire Apparatus Exhibit in Chelsea.

The Board of Aldermen held Thursday evening what is for the year 1913 a very brief session at the weekly meeting. Mayor MacLeod was a trifle late in arriving, but the board was in no hurry and waited for him. At the end it seemed as though no one would move to adjourn, but this was finally done and at 8:37, an unusually early hour, almost an unprecedentedly early hour, the board had dispersed.

The regular pay rolls were approved for the following sums: Streets and highways, $1,906.63; playground work, $131.47; police, $995.07; fire department, $647.24; city officers, $250.42; firemen in theatres, $35. The monthly pay roll for the schools, $10,722.68, was also approved.

The bill of H. H. Beeson, $4,000, second payment on the contract for the convention hall, was approved; also, the bill of the Newport Rubber Company for $115, for rubber coats for the fire department.

A communication was received from the overseers of the City Asylum, recommending that the contract for certain plumbing at the asylum be awarded to Maurice Butler for $349, he being the lowest bidder. The board so voted. The report gave also the other bids on the work.

A petition was received from William Loftus, executor of the will of Ann Elizabeth Kelley, asking the city to receive $200 for the perpetual care of her burial lot in the Old City cemetery. The usual resolution, authorizing the sinking fund commissioners to receive the sum, was passed.

A resolution was passed, granting the Newport & Fall River Street Railway Company permission to place poles on Van Zandt avenue to supply electric light to a new house. It had been laid over as usual and Mr. Albro said he had heard of no objection.

An application was received from John J. Hagan for appointment as a special policeman. He had just filed his application at the city clerk's office and the mayor did not even recognize the name, and so held it until he could look into the matter.

License were granted to D. B. Cascambas for an eating-house, to Realty and Builders and Merchants' Halls for exhibition halls, to Mrs. S. A. Mantas for fireworks, to Scannevin & Potter, Wood & Sullivan and the Foss Hughes Company for gasoline; to Louis Zipperman for junk shop and junk gatherer, and to Jacob Finklander for junk shop. The application of Catherine Smith for an eating-house license was referred to Alderman Leddy.

A resolution was passed turning over the $100 appropriated for Memorial day to Lawton-Watren Post.

The Providence Telephone Company was given permission to place five poles on Sheffield avenue. This also had been laid over a week.

The city clerk was authorized to ask for bids for 11 headstones for soldiers' graves, bids to be in in two weeks.

The mayor had a communication from Captain W. L. Rodgers, acting commandant of the Naval Station, asking the city to place granolithic walks on the Third Street and Cypress Street sides of the new naval hospital; also, giving some ideas about the importance of the place and the fact that Newport is trying to become the naval base in the bay. The mayor said he had talked with Medical Inspector Nash and had explained to him that the board could do nothing about a walk; that the Council must act, and it seemed

Chief Pharmacist John W. Wood Detached From the Naval Hospital.

Chief Pharmacist John W. Wood, U. S. N., who has been at the naval hospital here since September 19, 1895, has been ordered to the naval hospital, Annapolis, and will be succeeded by Chief Pharmacist S. W. Douglass. Chief Pharmacist Wood during his residence in Newport has become widely known, having been prominent in Newport Camp, Modern Woodmen of America, and in other circles. He has resided on outer Broadway for several years and has been actively interested in baseball and other sports, having last summer acted as manager for the Broadway team. He has served in Newport during his entire connection with the naval hospital service as pharmacist, was promoted to chief pharmacist in August, 1912, and is now second in his grade.
